

TRANSLATING PLANT SCIENCE INTO FOOD SECURITY

25TH AUGUST 2020
2.00 pm - 4 .00 pm (MYT)

"While the Covid-19 coronavirus pandemic is ravaging the world population, we are also facing a global food crisis.

What are scientists doing to ensure food supply and security?

What can we do to protect our crops?

In this webinar, we have invited two eminent plant scientists to share their research work in improving global food security."
